THE RED SOX MANAGER

RICHARD H. (DICK) WILLIAMS. Born: May 7, 1929, at St. Louis, Mo. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 190 lbs. Green eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Riviera Beach, Fla. Married Norma Marie Mussato, Oct. 23, 1954. Children: Kathi Jo, 11 years; Ricky, 10 years; Marc, 3 years. Acquired by Red Sox December, 1962, from Houston for outfielder Carroll Hardy.

Although he was "Manager of the Year" in his rookie season of 1967, when he took the Red Sox from ninth to first place, many observers believe he did an even better job in 1968 when he got the Red Sox home in fourth place, despite the loss of Tony Conigliaro, George Scott's failure to hit, Jim Lonborg's ineffectiveness following his knee operation, and the mid-season loss of Jose Santiago.

Dick came up to manage the Red Sox after winning two consecutive Governor's Cups in the International League with the Toronto club, where he managed many of the present Red Sox younger players. At 39 he is the second youngest manager in the American League (to Baltimore's Earl Weaver) and the third youngest in the major leagues (Weaver and Dave Bristol of Cincinnati).

During his career as a player from 1947 through 1964, he played every position except pitcher and catcher. An arm injury early in his career with Brooklyn hampered his throwing but he stayed in the big leagues by proving his versatility with Brooklyn, Baltimore, Kansas City, Cleveland and finally the Red Sox. He finished his active career in Boston in 1963 and 1964 as the club's top pinch hitter.

Before signing with the Dodgers he had starred in football, basketball and baseball at Pasadena Junior College and was All-State in baseball.

THE RED SOX COACHING STAFF

ROBERT P. (BOBBY) DOERR. Born: April 7, 1918, at Los Angeles, Calif. Ht.: 5' 10½"; Wt.: 185 lbs. Green eyes, graying black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Married Monica Terpin, Oct. 24, 1938. Son: Donald. Home: Junction City, Ore.

One of the Red Sox all-time favorite players, Bobby worked as a special scout and instructor in the Red Sox farm system for 10 years prior to taking the first base coaching job in 1967, so he had extensive knowledge of all Red Sox prospects.

He was the regular Red Sox second baseman from 1938 through 1951, with 1945 out for military service, and seven times he was voted the American League All Star second baseman. His lifetime batting average was .288 and holds the American League record for most consecutive errorless chances with 414.

DARRELL D. JOHNSON. Born: Aug. 25, 1927 at Ord, Neb. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 185 lbs. Bats and Throws: Right. Green eyes, Brown hair. Married Dixie Anna Brown, Oct. 15, 1950. Four children. Home: Pinole, Calif.

He became the Red Sox pitching coach last year after a long career as player, coach and minor league manager in other systems, and earned high praise for his handling of a pitching staff depleted by injuries.

Darrell played actively as a catcher and outfielder for the Cardinals, White Sox, Yankees, Phillies, Reds and finished his career as a teammate of Dick Williams at Baltimore. Later he coached the Cardinals and the Orioles and for four years managed in the Oriole farm system. His Rochester club won the Governor's Cup in 1964, and he managed against Dick Williams in 1965. In 1966 he led Elmira to the Eastern League title, finishing ahead of Pittsfield, managed by Eddie Popowski.

ALBERT W. (AL) LAKEMAN. Born: Dec. 31, 1919, at Cincinnati, Ohio. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 230 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Married Margaret Merrill, Aug. 6, 1940. Home: Spartanburg, S. C.

Al was the bullpen coach for the Red Sox in 1963 and 1964 under Johnny Pesky, then managed in the Detroit Tigers' farm system for two years, before returning to Boston in 1967. In his major league career, he played for the Reds, Phillies, Braves, and the Tigers, and later managed minor league clubs for the Tigers for many years. He has two children.

EDWARD J. (EDDIE) POPOWSKI. Born: Aug. 20, 1913 at Sayreville, N. J. Ht.: 5'4"; Wt.: 155 lbs. Bats and Throws: Right. Married Mary Joan Howley, Dec. 26, 1941. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Home: Sayreville, N. J.

"Pop" spent 30 years in the Red Sox organization as player, scout and manager, before coming up as third base coach in 1967. Most of the Red Sox home developed personnel played for him in the minor leagues. In 20 years of minor league managing, his clubs finished out of the first division only six times and he directed four pennant winners, the latest in 1965 when he led the Pittsfield Red Sox to the Eastern League championship. For several years prior to becoming a coach he managed the Red Sox entry in the Florida Instructional League. He has five children.

INFIELDER

LUIS

Born: January 15, 1949, LaJas, Puerto Rico; Ht.: 5'9"; Wt.: 162 lbs.; Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: LaJas, P.R. Acquired: Signed by Scout Pedro Vasquez, October 20, 1966.

Already tabbed as the Red Sox shortstop of the future, this youngster jumped from Waterloo to become the All Star shortstop in the Eastern League, with the pennant winning Pittsfield Red Sox. As a fielder, Luis already has major league ability with excellent range, a strong arm, and the knack of getting his throws away quicker than anyone in the American League since Phil Rizzuto. A singles hitter with exceptional speed, he has shown steady improvement as a batter in the two years he has been in the Red Sox system, and should be in Fenway Park to stay within another year. He is single.

MIKE

Born: July 9, 1943, Los Angeles, Calif. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 190 lbs.; Green eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Peabody, Mass. Acquired: Signed by scout Joe Stephenson from high school, Dec. 1, 1961.

The best Red Sox second baseman since Bobby Doerr and one of the club's most solid performers. Mike followed a good rookie season with an even better sophomore year in 1968, and was voted the "Man of the Year" on the team by the BoSox Club, Boston's baseball boosters group.

Originally a shortstop, he switched to second under Dick Williams at Toronto in 1966. At South Torrance (Calif.) High he was an All-League selection in football, basketball and baseball and later was an All-American Junior College end at El Camino College before signing with the Red Sox. Mike is married and has three children.

KEMER

Born: Sept. 18, 1948, Brooklyn, N. Y. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 190 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: El Segundo, Calif. Acquired: Signed by scout Joe Stephenson, June 29, 1966.

His rapid progress to the Red Sox was delayed in 1968 because of military commitments and periodic arm trouble, but Ken is still regarded as a bright future prospect. With only two years of professional baseball experience, he finished the 1967 season with the Red Sox and made an impressive World Series appearance at the age of 19.

An all sport star at El Segundo High, he was also a member of the 1964 national Babe Ruth League championship team. He is single.

CONIGLIARO, Anthony R.OUTFIELDER*TONY

Born: Jan. 7, 1945, Revere, Mass. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 185 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Swampscott, Mass. Acquired: Signed by Neil Mahoney and Milt Bolling, Sept. 10, 1962.

What had appeared to be one of the most tragic stories in baseball history may develop a happy ending . . . Tony C. sat out the entire 1968 season on the emergency disabled list as a result of the eye injury he suffered when beamed by Jack Hamilton on August 18, 1967. Although he started well in spring training of 1968, he soon was unable to pick up the spin of the ball and had to call it quits for the season under doctor's orders.

Since he had been an outstanding high school pitcher at St. Mary's High of Lynn, he asked for a chance to go to the Florida Instructional League last fall to work as a pitcher . . . not only did he impress as a pitcher with a good fast ball and curve, it also developed that his eyesight had recovered enough to make him a dangerous hitter again, and there is hope that he will be back in the outfield for the Red Sox on opening day of 1969.

The Red Sox outbid 14 other clubs for Tony's services after he had been Most Valuable Player in football, basketball and baseball in St. Mary's, and he jumped right to the major leagues after only one season in the minors. Before being injured in 1967, he had been an All-Star selection and was on his way to his most productive season and destined for future stardom. Single, he has cut several successful rock and roll records.

Tony's younger brother and the Red Sox number one selection in the Free agent draft of June, 1965. Injuries hampered his progress in 1968, but Billy had a good season with the pennant-winning Pittsfield Red Sox in the Eastern League. Already, he is rated a better fielder and has a better throwing arm than his older brother and has shown steady improvement at the plate. He has played center field primarily in the minor leagues.

He starred in both football and baseball at Swampscott High and turned down several attractive college offers to sign. Like Tony, he is single.

CULP, Raymond Leonard, Jr.PITCHER*RAY

Born: August 6, 1941, Elgin, Tex. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 200 lbs.; Blue eyes, Brown hair; Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Austin, Tex. Acquired: November 30, 1967, from the Chicago Cubs for cash and minor league outfielder Bill Schlesinger.

Easily the standout pitcher for the Red Sox in 1968, and over the last half of the season one of the best pitchers in the league. From July on Ray was 12-2, including four consecutive shutouts in September. He led all Red Sox pitchers with 11 complete games, 190 strikeouts, and six shutouts and made his acquisition from the Cubs last winter one of the best trades the Red Sox have ever made.

Still only 27 years old, he seems definitely ready to live up the promise of his rookie season with the Phillies when he was chosen for the National League All-Star team.

Married, with two children, he is an off-season real estate man in his hometown of Austin, Texas, where he starred in football, baseball and track at Austin High.

ELLSWORTH, Richard ClarkPITCHER*DICK

Born: March 22, 1940, Lusk, Wyoming. Ht.: 6'4"; Wt.: 200 lbs. Brown eyes and hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Fresno, Calif. Acquired: December 15, 1967, from Philadelphia Phillies, along with Gene Oliver, for Mike Ryan and cash.

Dick was the other very pleasant surprise on the Red Sox pitching staff in 1968, almost matching Culp's figures. His 8-4 record at Fenway Park, usually difficult for lefthanders, is one of the better all-time marks compiled by a Red Sox southpaw, and ranks his acquisition as another master trade by the Red Sox.

The Chicago Cubs signed him right out of Fresno Calif. High in 1958, and he came to the major leagues to stay in 1960. After seven full years with the Cubs, he was traded to the Phillies in December, 1966, for, ironically, Ray Culp. Married, with two children, he is, like Culp, an off-season real estate agent in his hometown of Fresno.

A high draft selection in June, 1965, and possessor of a great arm, he is gradually moving toward major league status. He had been an All-State selection in baseball, football and basketball at Choctaw High before signing and has the determination to become a future star. Billy is single.

Born: Dec. 26, 1947, Bellows Falls, Vt. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 200 lbs. Hazel eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Charlestown, N. H. Acquired: Signed in February, 1967, after being Red Sox number one selection in winter draft.

Although he missed the entire 1967 season on military duty and appeared in only 62 games with Waterloo last season, he is regarded as a great future prospect. Military duty and a slight arm problem delayed his professional start again in 1968, but with only three weeks experience he was selected for the Midwest League All-Star game and hit a home run.

He was MVP in baseball, basketball and soccer at Charlestown, N. H. High School and starred in basketball at the Univ. of New Hampshire before being drafted. Throughout his home area of Western New Hampshire and Eastern Vermont he has been known as "Pudgy" since childhood and he prefers that nickname. He is single.

Born: Nov. 13, 1947, Lake Charles, La. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 195 lbs. Hazel eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Lake Charles, La. Acquired: Scouted and signed by Milt Bolling in September, 1966, after being a high draft pick the previous June.

John played football and baseball and was on the track team at La Grange Senior High in Lake Charles and starred in baseball at Brevard Junior College in Florida for one year before signing. He now attends McNeese State College in the off-season.

Moved up to the major league roster because of tremendous improvement shown last season when he was the outstanding pitcher on the Greenville team. He has a good fast ball and curve and needs only more experience to make it all the way. He is single.

Born: Sept. 16, 1949, Caldwell, Idaho. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 195 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Wilder, Idaho. Acquired: Signed by Scout Earl Johnson after being the Red Sox number one draft selection in June, 1967.

Along with baseball, Mike was an All-State football and basketball player at Caldwell High before signing, but lack of consistency has kept him from realizing the potential he showed in high school. All observers believe he has the tools to be a major leaguer when he matures. Married with one child.

GIBSON, John RussellCATCHER*RUSS/GIBBY

Born: May 6, 1939, Fall River, Mass. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 195 lbs. Hazel eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Peabody, Mass. Acquired: Scouted by Joe Dugan and signed by Neil Mahoney in June, 1957 after graduating from Durfee High School in Fall River.

"Gibby" was the Red Sox number one catcher by the end of the 1968 season, his second full major league year, after toiling 10 years in the Red Sox minor league system. One of the most popular men on the team, he is highly rated as a receiver by the Red Sox pitching staff.

He signed with the Red Sox after a great athletic career in Durfee High of Fall River, Mass. In the high minors in Seattle and Toronto he had developed into a fine "clutch" hitter, and a similar improvement in his hitting would definitely establish him as the Red Sox number one catcher. In 1969, he faces a stiff challenge for the number one spot from rookie Gerry Moses. Married with one son.

Born: Jan. 7, 1943, Ogden, Utah. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 190 lbs. Hazel eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Ogden, Utah. Acquired: Signed by Scout Charlie Walgren, June, 1962.

Dave actually retired from baseball in 1967, but returned to action last year and had a good year with the championship Pittsfield Red Sox in the Eastern League. Possessor of a major league arm and a great fast ball, he had control trouble in his earlier years in the minor leagues, but he seemed to cure that last year.

He had been a three sport star at Ogden Utah High before signing and attended Weber State College for three years. Married with one child.

HARRELSON, Kenneth Smith

INFIELDER

HAWK/KEN

Born: Sept. 4, 1941, Woodruff, S. C.; Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 190 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Lynnfield, Mass. Acquired: Signed as a free agent, August 28, 1967, after being granted outright release by Kansas City Athletics August 25, 1967.

The "Hawk" was voted "Player of the Year" in the American League after winning the league RBI title, and challenging for the home run and batting crowns. He was the principal reason why the Red Sox stayed in contention in 1968, despite the loss of Tony Conigliaro and Jim Lonborg. Ken credits his complete concentration on baseball, and excluding golf and other outside activities which had occupied his time in previous seasons, with producing his best major league season ever. He tied with Carl Yastrzemski with 17 game-winning hits, including 11 home runs. Converted to a fulltime outfielder and continuing to catch onehanded, he played errorless baseball and became one of the most highly publicized players in the game because of his performance and ultra-colorful clothing.

He was an All-Star in every sport but football at Benedictine Military Academy in Savannah and All-American in basketball before signing. He is probably the best golfer in the baseball ranks and a frequent winner in baseball players' tourneys.

Came to the Red Sox after his much-publicized run-in with Charlie Finley, jumping from a last place club to the 1967 pennant winner, which he tabs as the "biggest break of my life." Married and the father of three.

MIKE

Born: March 27, 1946, Paterson, N. J.; Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 190 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Paterson, N. J. Acquired: Drafted, November 1964 from Philadelphia Phillies.

Drafted from the Phillies in 1964, Mike had one year in the Red Sox system and then spent two years in the Army. After an impressive showing in the Red Sox spring training camp, an ankle injury curtailed his activity last season, but he was still regarded as the best pitching prospect on the Winston-Salem club.

A fine all-around athlete at Central High in Paterson, he is a better-than-average hitter and fielder and a definite future prospect. In high school he pitched back-to-back one-hitters, striking out 42 batters in 20 innings. He is single.

Born: May 10, 1946, Providence, R. I. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 195 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Thows: Right. Home: Providence, R. I. Acquired: Scouted and signed by Joe Dugan, June, 1965.

Ray had an unusual year, with an 0-8 record in the Carolina League, but showed great improvement when moved up to Louisville in the International League. Poor infielding contributed to his winless record in the lower classification, and he is regarded as a future prospect with a good sinking fast ball. He was All-State at Hope High in Providence and starred in the Cape Cod League before signing. Recently married.

Born: December 10, 1943, McComb, Miss. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 185 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats: Left; Throws: Right. Home: Baton Rouge, La. Acquired: Signed by Scout George Digby, June 1, 1961.

He wound up the 1968 season as the Red Sox first baseman when George Scott failed to hit, and seemed more at ease as a fielder at first than he had been at third or second base. The second best pinch hitter in the league last year at .407, with his all-around ability he is a most valuable player for any team.

Dalton was an All-State selection in both baseball and basketball at Istrouma High in Baton Rouge and attends Louisiana State in the off-season. His father, Clint, and a great-uncle Leroy played professional baseball. Married and has a son.

Exceptionally fast player who stole 37 bases last season, Kris showed great improvement when moved from shortstop to second base and is now regarded as a future prospect. A spray-type hitter, he will undoubtedly need more minor league experience.

He starred at Dykes High in Atlanta and for Manatee Junior College in Florida before signing. Attends Florida State University in the off-season. Single.

Joe was the surprise of the 1968 Red Sox spring training camp and opened the regular season in right field, but his limited minor league experience found him slightly overmatched against major league pitching. He was recalled later in the season from Louisville for a short spell when injuries made the Red Sox shorthanded. Despite having his season broken up, he finished with a solid year at Louisville and has an excellent chance to stick in 1969. He has shown power, a great throwing arm, and surprising speed, despite flat feet and a broken ankle which gave him trouble.

At Henry Abbott Tech, he captained the baseball, soccer and basketball teams, and also played basketball at New Haven College before signing. Single.

This hard-throwing southpaw should see much more action in 1969, after a good season as a reliever in 1968. Has been used both as a long and short man in bullpen, and ironically rain has washed out several scheduled starts for him in the past two years with Boston.

A four-letter man in baseball, tennis, football and wrestling at Hanford (Calif.) High. Bill was attending Coalinga Junior College when he originally signed with the Athletics. He's married and has a son, and worked last winter as a goodwill ambassador for the club.

LONBORG, James R.PITCHER*JIM

Born: April 16, 1943, Santa Maria, Calif. Ht.: 6'5"; Wt.: 200 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Boston, Mass. Acquired: Signed by Scout Danny Doyle, Aug. 14, 1963.

The skiing accident which damaged his left knee in December, 1967, and the ensuing operation had more serious consequences than had been expected. Jim was unable to make his first appearance on the mound in 1968 until May 28th, and his first start was postponed until June 16th. He never did recapture the effectiveness which made him a 22-game winner and recipient of the Cy Young Award for 1967, but by late season he had shown flashes which indicated he should be completely ready by 1969.

His 1967 performances — first 20-game winner for the Red Sox in four years, and second all-time strikeout (246) leader for the club, plus his two great pitching jobs against the Cardinals in the World Series — all at the age of 24, established him as one of the best in baseball. After a winter of sound conditioning, there seems no reason to believe he can't regain that status in 1969.

He signed after his junior year at Stanford when he chose baseball over medicine, but he did go on to get his degree in biology in 1966. He had been Stanford's MVP in 1963 and was pitching in the Basin League when he signed with the Red Sox. He is still single and was associated last winter with Red Sox trainer Buddy LeRoux in a Greater Boston rehabilitation clinic.

LYLE, Albert W.PITCHER*SPARKY

Born: July 22, 1944, Dubois, Pa. Ht.: 6'1"; Wt.: 197 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Peabody, Mass. Acquired: Drafted, November, 1964, from Baltimore Orioles.

The top southpaw short reliever on the Red Sox for the last season and a half. Sparky's six wins and eight saves ranked him second only to Lee Stange in the Boston bullpen in 1968, and he is young enough to keep improving.

At Reynoldsville (Pa.) High he played only football and basketball because his school had no baseball team. The Orioles scouted him on the sandlots and signed him after he struck out 31 men in a 17-inning game in 1963, and he was drafted by the Red Sox in 1964. Married, he was another goodwill representative for the club during the past winter.

MILLS, Richard A.PITCHER*DICK

Born: Jan. 29, 1945, Boston, Mass. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 195 lbs. Hazel eyes, Blond hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: East Weymouth, Mass. Acquired: Signed by assistant farm director Ed Kenney after free agent draft of 1966. Scouted by Don Lenhardt.

Marked improvement in 1968, after losing most of the 1967 season because of military duty, earned him a promotion to the major league roster. Although Dick needs more minor league experience, veteran observers now rate him with a good chance to become a major league winner if his curve continues to improve. He performed well for the Red Sox entry in the Florida Instructional League last fall.

A baseball and basketball star at Thayer Academy, he signed after his junior year at Parsons College, where he finally earned his degree in business in 1967. Single.

Born: Aug. 9, 1946, Yazoo City, Miss. Ht.: 6'3". Wt.: 205 lbs. Blue eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Peabody, Mass. Acquired: Signed by Scout George Digby, June, 1964.

After steady improvement in five years in the Red Sox farm system, Jerry seems ready to move to Boston to stay. He was ranked the outstanding catcher in the International League last year and a good clutch hitter whose receiving had improved greatly. Only 22 years old, he should have a great major league future.

As an All-State football choice at Yazoo (Miss.) High, where he also played basketball and baseball, he turned down many college scholarship offers to sign with the Red Sox in 1964. He is a graduate of Mickey Owens baseball school for boys. Recently married, he was employed by the Red Sox as a goodwill ambassador during the winter.

Born: Aug. 1, 1947, Hollywood, Calif. Ht.: 6'2". Wt.: 185 lbs. Green eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: San Diego, Calif. Acquired: Signed by Scout Ray Boone, May, 1967.

Tony will be in his first spring training camp ever when he comes to Winter Haven with the Red Sox, because he signed early in the 1967 season and missed 1968 camp because of military duty. Despite limited action in two years, he is highly regarded as a fielder and a hitter and was one of the leading hitters in the Florida Instructional League last fall.

Starred in both football and baseball at Lakewood High in San Diego, and was an All-League selection at San Diego Mesa College before signing. Married last summer.

Born: March 25, 1948, New York City, N. Y. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 200 lbs. Green eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: New York City. Acquired: Signed by Scout "Bots" Nekola after free agent draft of June, 1966.

Despite quite limited action in both 1966, after he signed, and 1967, when military commitments and arm trouble idled him, his solid 1968 season has earned him a promotion to the major league roster. A hard-throwing righthander with a good curve, Mickey will need more minor league experience but he is regarded as a fine future prospect.

Played all sports at St. Helena High in New York before signing and attends Manhattan Community College in the off-season. Single.

Making his second trip to Winter Haven and after two consecutive good triple A seasons, has a chance to stay. Sid can play both second and third, but most observers agree his best position is third. He was drafted away from the Red Sox by Kansas City in 1964 but was re-acquired in a minor league deal in 1966.

Played both football and baseball at Millikan High in Long Beach and signed after one season at Long Beach City College. Married with one daughter.

Born: June 27, 1943, Brooklyn, N. Y. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 184 lbs. Brown eyes and hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Lynn, Mass. Acquired: Signed by Scout Bots Nekola, July 2, 1961.

When he is physically right, Rico is a brilliant shortstop and a dangerous hitter, but minor injuries and arm ailments have plagued his major league career. In 1968, the elbow problems which had bothered him back in 1965 kicked up again and he had trouble throwing. It is hoped, however, he can snap back to have the type of season he had in 1967 when he played great all-around baseball.

He was an All-Scholastic in both basketball and baseball at Sheepshead Bay (N.Y.) High School. A fine drummer, he took additional lessons this past winter. Rico is married with three children, including twin boys.

Born: February 7, 1937, Santurce, Puerto Rico. Ht.: 5'11"; Wt.: 197 lbs. Black eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Left. Home: Santurce, Puerto Rico. Acquired: Purchased from Pittsburgh Pirates, June 27, 1968.

He was a valuable mid-season acquisition for the Red Sox in 1968 as he pitched some outstanding games both as a starter and reliever. Although Juan doesn't have the fastball he had when he was a big winner for the Chicago White Sox from 1961 through 1964, he could still be a valuable spot starter and long reliever for the Red Sox in 1969.

Originally signed by the veteran Luis Olmo for the Milwaukee Braves, he has been a consistent winner in the winter league in his native Puerto Rico. Single.

A special invitee to the Red Sox camp, to see if an elbow operation performed last summer has helped him to overcome the arm and elbow problems which have plagued his professional pitching career.

He was co-captain of the University of Dayton's NIT basketball champs in 1962 before signing with the Twins. An off season teacher in Cleveland, he is married and has a daughter.

Born: Aug. 15, 1940, Juana Diaz, Puerto Rico. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 192 lbs. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Juana Diaz, Puerto Rico. Acquired: Contract purchased from Vancouver club of Kansas City farm system, Sept. 20, 1965.

The biggest question mark for the Red Sox in 1969 will be the condition of Sandy's arm. He ranked third among all pitchers in the league, behind Denny McLain and Luis Tiant, with nine wins through June 27th, when his arm started to bother him, and after only two more starts he went on the disabled list for the season. Doctors ordered him to take a complete rest during the winter in hopes that his arm will be healthy again for spring training.

The 1968 arm trouble marked the third time in his career that his progress has been delayed. He had impressed in spring training with Kansas City in 1963 and 1964, but an appendicitis attack sidelined him in 1963 and a severely sprained ankle set him back in 1964.

He starred in baseball and basketball at Juana Diaz High School and attended Santa Maria Catholic University before signing. Married and has one son.

SCHOFIELD, John Richard

Born: Jan. 7, 1935, Springfield, Ill. Ht.: 5'9"; Wt.: 165 lbs. Blue eyes, Brown hair. Bats: Switch; Throws: Right. Home: Springfield, Ill. Acquired: Obtained from St. Louis Cardinals for pitcher Gary Waslewski, Dec. 3, 1968.

Although he has been primarily a shortstop, Dick has also played both second and third so he becomes the utility infielder to replace Jerry Adair, lost in the expansion draft. The Red Sox are the sixth major league club Schofield has been associated with.

He broke right in with the Cardinals after signing for a reported $40,000 bonus in 1953, and actually has spent only a season and a half in the minor leagues. In 1958 he was traded by the Cardinals to the Pirates, where he had his best years and was a vital cog in the Pittsburgh pennant winner of 1960, filling in for Dick Groat. In 1965 he was traded to the Giants, was sold to the Yankees in May, 1966 and traded to the Dodgers in September of that year. In December, 1967, he was released by the Dodgers but went to the Cardinals spring training camp and made the club as a utility infielder on their pennant winner. He starred in both baseball and basketball in high school before signing. Married, and has three children.

SCOTT, George

Born: March 23, 1944, Greenville, Miss. Ht.: 6'2"; Wt.: 225 lbs. Black eyes, Black hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Norwood, Mass. Acquired: Signed by Scout Ed Scott, with an assist from Milt Bolling, May, 1964.

The next big question for the 1969 Red Sox season . . . George was a major disappointment with the bat in 1968, after a great 1967 campaign when he was the fourth-leading hitter in the American League. His fielding at first base didn't suffer, however, as he won his second Gold Glove award in a row.

There is much speculation that he possibly could be the Red Sox third baseman for 1969, a position where he is equally proficient with the glove, but his presence in the lineup will depend on his bat. His hitting and especially his home run and RBI production in the Puerto Rican winter league were most encouraging.

In his final minor league season of 1965 with Pittsfield, under Red Sox third base coach Eddie Popowski, he won every batting title in the league, and was a unanimous MVP choice. Prior to signing he starred in football, basketball and baseball at Coleman High of Greenville. Married.

SMITH, Carl Reginald

OUTFIELDER

REGGIE

Born: April 2, 1945, Shreveport, La. Ht., 6'; Wt.: 187 lbs. Brown eyes, Black hair. Bats: Switch. Throws: Right. Home: Norwood, Mass. Acquired: Drafted from Minnesota Twins farm system Dec. 2, 1963.

All observers agree Reggie can be one of the bright future stars of the American League, and in 1968 he followed a good rookie season with an even better sophomore year. His fielding improved so much that he was selected a Gold Glove award-winning outfielder. He jumped his stolen base total from 16 to 22, while his batting improved in all categories.

He starred in both baseball and football at Centennial Senior High in Los Angeles, which also produced current major leaguers Don Wilson of Houston and Davey Nelson of the Indians. An expert on the development of quarter-horses, he has several prize horses of his own. Married, with one son.

"The Stinger" became the Red Sox top reliever in 1968 with five wins and 11 saves, and appeared in more games (50) than any other pitcher on the staff. In two-and-a-half years with the Red Sox he has been a fine clutch performer.

Lee was All-State in baseball and All-Chicago in basketball at Proviso Township High, and also played football, with Ray Nitschke of the Green Bay Packers as a teammate. He also attended Drake University for one year before signing with the old Washington Senators, later the Twins. An outstanding bowler, he is married and has two sons, one daughter.

Jerry still possesses the major league arm, but has yet to overcome the nervousness which has kept him from being a major league winner and living up to the promise which the Red Sox have always expected.

He starred at Anaheim High and was scouted by all major league clubs before being signed by his father, a former major leaguer, for the Red Sox. Married.

THOMAS, George Edward, Jr. OUTFIELDER GEORGE

Born: Nov. 29, 1937, Minneapolis, Minn. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 190 lbs. Hazel eyes, Brown hair. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Birmingham, Mich. Acquired: from Detroit Tigers with George Smith for Bill Monbouquette, Oct. 4, 1965.

Very well-liked player who gets another chance with the Red Sox after a fine season at Louisville, where he played both first base and the outfield, and was selected for the International League All-Star team.

George was a valuable utility man for Boston in 1966 and the pennant-winning 1967 season, and gives the Red Sox a backup catcher in an emergency. His fine sense of humor also contributes to his value to the team as a "holler" guy.

Originally signed with the Tigers after his sophomore year at the University of Minnesota, where he played basketball and baseball. Prior to that he had been a three-sport star at Bloomington (Minn.) High. During the off-season he has worked towards his degree at Wayne State University in Detroit, while also breaking into the radio broadcast field. Married and has two daughters.

WENZ, Frederick, Jr. PITCHER "FIREBALL"

Born: August 26, 1941, Bound Brook, N. J. Ht.: 6'3"; Wt.: 214 lbs. Brown hair, Blue eyes. Bats and Throws: Right. Home: Somerville, N. J. Acquired: Signed by Scout Bobby Doerr, July, 1961, after being released by San Francisco Giants organization.

Despite a very frustrating year, Fred still managed 16 saves for Louisville to keep hopes alive that he can be another Dick Radatz as a hard-throwing short reliever. He disappointed in spring training with the Red Sox, but went back down to triple A and picked up where he left off the previous season at Toronto as the best short reliever in the International League.

Recalled to Boston, he pitched in one game, one inning, walked two and struck out three, but injured his arm in the process. When the arm failed to come around, he was shipped back to Louisville and seemed to have recaptured his effectiveness by late in the year. Over the 10-year period he has been in the minor leagues, "Fireball" has always had a high ratio of strikeouts to innings pitched. He worked hard in the Puerto Rican winter league preparing for his second chance in Winter Haven.

He was originally signed by the Giants in 1959 and released in 1961 because of control problems. Bobby Doerr, then scouting for Boston, had been impressed by him and he got a new lease on life. He was converted to a fulltime reliever by Eddie Popowski in 1965 and has done a good job since. Single.

Born: Aug. 22, 1939, Southampton, L. I., N. Y. Ht.: 6'; Wt.: 182 lbs. Brown eyes, Brown hair. Bats: Left; Throws: Right. Home: Lynnfield, Mass. Acquired: Signed by Scout Bots Nekola, Nov. 28, 1958.

Although he didn't match his fantastic year of 1967 when he won the Triple Crown and was American League MVP, Carl did become just the fifth ever to win three American League batting titles (with the lowest average ever) and also won his sixth Gold Glove as the best left fielder in the league. By winning his second consecutive batting title, he became the eighth man in league history to accomplish that feat, after Nap Lajoie, Ty Cobb, Al Simmons, Joe DiMaggio, Ted Williams, Ferris Fain and Tony Oliva.

With Tony Conigliaro out of the lineup and George Scott having an off year, rival pitchers walked Yaz a total of 119 times in 1968, which led the league, and helped him to lead both leagues in total times on base.

He and Ken Harrelson tied for the club lead with 17 game-winning hits apiece. This past winter he cut down considerably on the banquets, etc. and hopes he can recapture the 1967 magic to lead the Red Sox back to the top.

He starred as an infielder in high school and signed after his freshman year at Notre Dame. He received his degree from Merrimack College in the spring of 1967, and has become associated with a Boston investment firm in the off-season. Married and has three children.

DID YOU KNOW?

Carl Yastrzemski batted .369 (62 for 168) over the last month-and-a-half to win his third batting crown with a .301 average. He was hitting .270 Aug. 12 when he began his surge that included eight, nine and 11-game hitting streaks. He became just the eighth man in league history to win successive batting titles and he is just the fifth to win three American League hitting crowns. Others were Nap Lajoie, Ty Cobb, Harry Heilmann and Ted Williams.

Yaz was the seventh Red Sox player to win a batting title in the last 12 years, 10th in 22 years and 14th in 37 years. No other team in the league has produced more than five batting champs during this period.

DID YOU KNOW?

Ken Harrelson, who led the majors in RBIs with 109 and hit 35 homers, started in only 146 games and didn't have a run batted in in April. Starting May 1, he went on a spree that produced 101 RBIs and 32 home runs in 3½ months. Twenty of his homers put the Red Sox ahead when they were either tied or behind. Four more tied the score. Twenty came with men on base. Only six of the 35 came with more than two runs separating the two teams. And he had a .322 batting average in "clutch" situations.

DID YOU KNOW?

Reggie Smith doubled in six of his last seven games to win the league doubles crown with 37. He doubled his first time up on the final day of the season to edge Baltimore's Brooks Robinson, who had 36.

DID YOU KNOW?

Ray Culp tied Cy Young's Red Sox record of four consecutive shutouts. He was only one short of the American League record of five set by the White Sox' G. Harris White in 1904. He had a string of 39 straight scoreless innings, third longest in Red Sox history behind Young's 45 $\frac{2}{3}$ in 1904 and George Foster's 42 in 1914. He also allowed just two runs in 52 innings and was scored on in just five of his last 74 innings. He was 12-2 with a 2.11 ERA over the last three months and had seven straight complete-game victories in one stretch. He was 6-1 in September and 7-1 in one-run decisions.

DID YOU KNOW?

Lee Stange was third in the league's "Fireman" standings for relievers with five wins and 11 saves for 16 points. When he entered the game in crucial situations — score tied, Red Sox ahead by one or two or behind by one — he had a 1.33 earned run average.

DID YOU KNOW?

Sparky Lyle had the Red Sox' best record, percentage-wise, at 6-1 despite the fact that he had fewer runs to work with (2.52 per game) than any pitcher on the team. When he came in to pitch tie games, he didn't allow an earned run. And in his 18 appearances in Red Sox victories, he had a 0.69 earned run average.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

FREE AGENT DRAFT RULE — A BRIEF SUMMARY: Major League and National Association clubs meet twice a year for the purpose of drafting free agent player talent . . . Selection of a free agent entitles the club to the exclusive right of negotiation with that player for a specified period (from date of selection until 15 days prior to next draft meeting).

Approximate dates of draft meetings: Summer (June 10) and Winter (last Saturday of January) . . .

There are two phases to each draft meeting:

(1) Regular Phase — selection of free agents in inverse order of major league standings . . . Limitations on number of selections by each organization at each level: Major League (1), "AAA" (1), "AA" (1), "A" (unlimited) . . . Minor league clubs select in the same relative order as their parent clubs.

(2) Secondary Phase — selection of free agents who had been drafted at a previous meeting, but who were not subsequently signed before the negotiation right expired . . . It is possible for a club to redraft a player whom it had been unable to sign after the original selection, but only with express written consent of that player . . . Order of selection in the secondary phase is determined by lot.

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: A game terminated by curfew or by a pre-arranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed far enough to be an official game (i.e. 4½ or 5 innings) . . .

A game terminated by light failure is a suspended game anytime after it begins.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same ground . . . If this is not possible, other provisions for resumption are specified in American League Regulation 3.8 . . .

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall now be considered a suspended game and will be resumed at the point of suspension.

BATTING/PITCHING (ERA) CHAMPION QUALIFICATION: 502 or more plate appearances. 162 or more innings.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: To qualify as a Rookie a player may not have spent more than 45 days on a big league roster between cutdown dates (the 31st day of season and Sept. 1), AND may not have exceeded 90 official at bats or 45 innings pitched at major league level.

SAVE RULE — Credit a save to a relief pitcher who enters the game with his team in the lead if he holds the lead the remainder of the game, provided he is not credited with the victory. A relief pitcher cannot be credited with a save if he does not finish the game, unless he is removed for a pinch hitter or runner. When more than one relief pitcher qualifies for a save under the provisions of this rule, credit the save to the relief pitcher judged by the scorer to have been the most effective. Only one save can be credited in any game.
